Outside Suppliers & Contractors

All third-party suppliers and contractors must work within agreed run sheet for delivering, set up and breakdown. Third party suppliers and contractors, appointed by you or Eat Street, must always abide by the Venue's regulations and instructions. All contractors and suppliers must have their own appropriate Public Liability Insurance with a minimum of $20,000,000 and must provide a Certificate of Insurance to the Eat Street Functions Manager. No additional access to the Venue will be provided to third party contractors or suppliers outside of the agreed times unless otherwise agreed upon by Eat Street.

Audio Visual Including Signage and Theming

All entertainment within the venue must adhere to our maximum approved sound levels (decibel limit) as stated on our Liquor Licence. We regularly check sound levels within the Venue therefore if any entertainment is registering over those approved limits, then we reserve the right to request that noise levels be reduced or cease.

If supplying Your own audio-visual equipment and or operators, you are responsible for ensuring your equipment is compatible with our systems (if applicable), in sound working order and complies with applicable specifications and standards. Note. Any damage to our equipment will be on-charged to You.

No items are to be pinned, screwed, glued or otherwise attached to the walls of any area of the Venue, unless otherwise approved by Us. We are not responsible for set up or pack down of any external displays, signage or theming. Any provided theming or furniture for an Event by Eat Street remains the property of Eat Street and is to remain at the Venue after conclusion of the Event.

It is your responsibility to have insurance for your items or items belonging to your guests for the period those items are in the Venue.

You and your guests must comply with all requirements and directions of Eat Street staff. This includes following any staff instruction for security, safety, and emergency reasons. We reserve the right to change, amend or cancel any Venue set up or requests for items to be placed inside the Venue if it hinders fire risk or safety in any manner.

You and your guests' belongings may be searched on entry to the Venue, or during their attendance at the Venue. You and your guests must consent to such searches. You and your guests may be required to leave the Venue if they refuse a request to have their belongings searched and will not be otherwise compensated.

You (the organiser) shall be responsible for any loss or damage, to the Venue, its fittings and/or equipment, or injury to any guest, staff member caused by your negligence, or the negligence of any person engaged by you, or your agents/contractors/suppliers, during the Event or during the setup or pack-down of the Event/. The Venue is not responsible for any loss or damage to any property or equipment left on the premises before, during, or after the Event.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Indemnity

Each party (Indemnifying Party) must indemnify the other party against all Loss that the other party may sustain or incur as a result, whether directly or indirectly, of damage to any property or injury or death of any person caused by any negligent act or omission or wilful misconduct of the Indemnifying Party or its Personnel, visitors, invitees or licensees except to the extent that the other party or its Personnel, officers and employees contribute to the Loss.

Amendments to These Terms & Conditions

No amendment to these Terms and Conditions shall be binding upon Eat Street unless in writing and signed by the Eat Street Functions Manager

Force Majeure / Cancellation By The Venue

If Eat Street is unable to provide the facilities or any other arrangements for your Event or any part thereof, or to otherwise perform the terms of this agreement and the failure is subject to unforeseen disputes, strikes, picketing, accidents, government (federal, state or local) requisitions, restrictions upon travel, transportation, food beverages, or supplies, equipment and power failure, and other causes which are beyond the decision or control of Eat Street, we are not responsible for any costs, damages or expenses that you may suffer or incur. Whilst every reasonable effort will be made to ensure that your Event will proceed on the date you have nominated, We reserve the right to cancel your Event due to a change in circumstances/unforeseen Act of God which may be within or outside Eat Street's control. As soon as Eat Street become aware of any such change in circumstances, We will notify you that your Event is cancelled and Eat Street will refund you 50% of the total cost of the Event. Your damages in respect to any cancellation are limited to 50% of the total cost of the Event and you have no further claim against us for any further damages or loss that you may suffer as a consequence of the cancellation. We recommend you consider appropriate insurance to cover you in the event of Force Majeure.
